ORDER OF WORSHIP

CENTRAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Prelude Étude No. 4, “Pour les sixtes”, C. Debussy

Welcome Amy McKee

Call to Worship:

One: Listen for the voice of God –
All: God will speak peace to all people.
One: Do not be surprised if God’s peace comes in the form of judgment. Do not expect God to whitewash the truth.
All: We will listen and take heart in God’s presence.
One: Surely God’s salvation is at hand for those who fear God,
All: that glory may dwell in our land.
One: God’s glory is not that of wealth or power.
All: God’s glory is found in compassion and works of justice.
One: Listen for the voice of God –
All: God will speak peace to all people.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CENTRAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Thanks to all who have volunteered to 'Greet' before our worship services. It's not too late for others to put their name on the schedule at the Welcome Desk at the entrance. There is even a schedule for 2027 if you like to plan ahead. We do need volunteers for most of November and December.

Fifth Sunday Pitchins have been a real hit. Methodists seem to be great cooks, and we do like to gather and connect. There will be NO 5th Sunday gathering in November. It's the Sunday after Thanksgiving. It was suggested we all bring our leftovers but a few too many days in between.

BUT the UWF are excited to bring you our Annual Christmas Luncheon on December 13 right after our service. Just show up - the food will be provided.

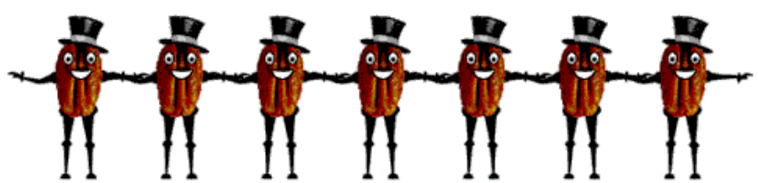

Hand in Hand Adult Day Care Center of Richmond is selling red and white poinsettias for $14 each! The deadline to order is December 7th. Reach out to the office for more information.

No Ad Council meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 24

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CENTRAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

UWF is again selling 1 pound bags of pecan halves and 1 pound bags of pecan pieces for $14 each. They will be available for Thanksgiving. See Shanron Rider or fill out the order form and return it to the office. Thank you for your support!
